

A Message from Fr. Fulton

Continuing Lent in preparation for the Easter season, it is a good time to ask ourselves the following questions:

1. Am I being faithful to my Lenten penance?
2. If I have failed in my Lenten penance, have I continued to try to practice it?
3. If I have failed in my Lenten penance, what caused me to fail in it, and how can I make corrections to observe the penance and to persevere in it?
4. What signs are there that my Lenten penance is having an affect on me, whether it be in my thoughts, actions, or what others have noticed in me?
5. Beyond Lent, will I continue this penance, or will it have a permanent affect on me?

Lent will be over before we know it, so it is good to periodically evaluate ourselves during the season, always keeping the joys of Easter in mind.
